Revisit your company values and embrace collaboration

This fast paced, high energy, engaging team build will help you re-visit your corporate values, as you examine what it means to be part of your organisation.

Teams complete collaborative tasks and earn cubes, which they use to build your brand. A powerful 360 opportunity for management to engage its employees and receive insightful feedback.

Due to the nature of this event we suggest a participating audience of 50-250 delegates in teams of 10.
